Planet Lebanon 2010 Conference: June 29 – July 1, 2010; Beirut Lebanon

The sixth Lebanese International Business Council (LIBC) World Conference and exhibition is a response to the global economic and financial crisis, with a special highlight on how to enhance employment, investment and trade prospects by offering the Lebanese, Near Eastern, Gulf and African markets with a rare chance to network with their Lebanese-international and Arab-international counterpart, and remain informed of critical economic strategies and variables via panels of selected speakers.

Held under the high Patronage of the President of the Republic, His Excellency General Michel Sleiman, the event is designed to allow room for expertise exchange, relationship building and cooperation opportunities, and provide a refined, targeted display venue for your products and services.

The Planet Lebanon Conference will take place at the BIEL Center in Downtown Beirut, Lebanon from June 29 – July 1, 2010.

Visit: www.planetlebanon.net to learn more about this extraordinary opportunity.

After the success of Planet Lebanon 2005, and a four-year imposed hiatus, the LIBC is proud to re-launch Planet Lebanon 2010, under the title of the Lebanese-Arab Expatriates Networking Conference. Planet

Lebanon 2010 is the manifestation of new visions, old hopes and genuine desire for a brand new Lebanon. It is the LIBC's sincere wish that through providing a place for the creation and development of Arab-international ties, we may play a decisive part in rebuilding our national economy, and paving the way to unprecedented heights.

Ascent TV to hold Showing for "ROCK BOTTOM" on May 28 at Fordson High School

Inspired by a true story, "RockBottom" is a short film that was filmed, produced and directed locally in the Detroit Metro Area (Dearborn) by Ascent TV. The film tells the story of a young man, Adam (played by Jalal Moughania), who loses his way in life from a very young age. Victimized by outside factors controlling the course of his life, Adam decides to take the role of the predator rather than the victim.

This is the first attempt at a short film that will be submitted to international film festivals. "Rock Bottom" has received many outstanding reviews from professionals in the media industry. Wissam Bazzi, director of "Rock Bottom", was awarded the LAHC Award for Innovative Film & Media Initiatives on May 7, 2010 during the LAHC's Annual Scholarship Dinner.

Ascent TV will be showing the short film at Fordson High School in Dearborn on MAY 28 AT 6:30 pm. Ascent TV will also be signing up new actors for their upcoming projects. Signing up for auditions will be held at 6:00 pm the same day.

Founded in 1990 by noted choreographer Jihad Mufleh, the Damascus-based Enana is the only professional dance troupe in Syria, and features many of the Middle East's most talented dancers. The company melds Syrian and Arabic folk tales such as the stories of Zenobia, Queen of the East, and Sindbad with modern choreography rooted in classical ballet. Acrobats, aerial artists and stilt walkers add to the visual poetry. Enana's production designs are breathtaking, with larger-than-life statues, multi-tiered scenery, special effects and laser displays. Each performance is a vibrant tapestry of movement, color and sound.
